

Hotel Use for Hurricanes Katrina and Rita (by rooms)

The data comes from a daily FEMA telephone survey of hotels that have submitted bills for accommodating evacuees under FEMA's Short-Term Lodging Program.

Data as of Monday, February 06, 2006

State	Hotels w/ Evacuees	Rooms
Louisiana	499	10499
Texas	782	5292
Georgia	382	3157
Mississippi	218	2142
Florida	272	1150
Alabama	165	866
California	201	539
Tennessee	76	229
Arkansas	76	211
New York	16	184
North Carolina	39	81
Virginia	31	66
Maryland	24	62
Michigan	10	48
Illinois	25	41
South Carolina	19	40
Washington	18	38
Missouri	20	31
District of Columbia	5	30
Nevada	17	30
Arizona	8	20
Colorado	12	19
New Jersey	14	18
Minnesota	10	13
Pennsylvania	8	13
Indiana	9	11
Ohio	8	11
Oregon	8	11
Nebraska	3	10
Oklahoma	6	9
Wisconsin	6	7
Delaware	4	6
West Virginia	4	6
Massachusetts	4	5
Alaska	3	4
Connecticut	4	4
Iowa	2	3
New Mexico	3	3
Kansas	1	3
Kentucky	3	3
Maine	1	1
Rhode Island	1	1
Utah	1	1
Hawaii	0	0
Wyoming	0	0

Vermont	0	0
South Dakota	0	0
Puerto Rico	0	0
New Hampshire	0	0
North Dakota	0	0
Idaho	0	0
Montana	0	0
Totals	3,018	24,918

KEY:
State	The state of the hotel's location
Hotels	Hotels reporting rooms occupied by evacuees
Rooms	The number of hotel rooms occupied by evacuees
NOTE: FEMA did not get current data from a small percentage of hotels that participated in the CLC program.	